FOREWORD
Just as the Century
of Progress Fair marks the passage of an era of development in the history of the world, so this - the 1934 Sundial - brings to a close another eventful and progressive year in our lives.

The fourth largest Parent-Teacher Association in the State, our own Sunset organization, has a membership of four hundred forty-seven, and twenty-three contributing firms. The regular meeting date is the second Friday of each month in the school auditorium.

The object of the Association is to create and to stimulate a bond of interest and sympathy between parents and teachers, to make it possible for parents to understand the school and the work, to help maintain a high moral atmosphere in the school, and to stimulate, among the students, a desire for higher education.

Both the Parent Education Study Class, conducted by Miss Evelyn Eastman, and the Home Study Course have had a splendid attendance and have contributed toward our attaining a standard of excellence.

Funds with which to carry on the welfare work and adopted program were obtained through activities such as assemblies, dues, dances, game tournaments, and a carnival.

It has entertained both graduating classes and in the interest of good scholarship has given an award to the student in each graduating class with the highest average for the four years.

Secretary-Treasurer	K. B. Crannell

The Dads' Club has truly lived up to its traditional motto of being interested in the Sunset student body during the year of 1933-34.

Among its chief objectives accomplished during this year was the creation of a Student Loan Fund, from which students might borrow small sums to satisfy their worthy needs. Also, they improved the football field, planted numerous trees and shrubs, resurfaced the retaining walls, improved the streets and traffic conditions surrounding the school, and most important, they upbuilt and created a civic pride, a feeling of good fellowship, and the sincere interest on the part of the Dads in their school, its faculty, and its facilities.

LIEBESTRAUME

When night draws near and dreamy shadows fall,
And through dark mists the street lights dimly glow,
When shining stars appear and listen all
In silence there to our small world below,
From out of that great space, there comes to me
In quiet stillness that holds an ocean's calm,
A song that melts away in harmony,
The lovely, haunting strains of Liebestraume.

—Tom Gossett.

GOD AND RAIN

The sky's a gray, dull leaden mist;
Rain comes once again,
Beating down upon my window.
What do I see in those drops on my pane?
God and rain.

More and more rain descends
On my little world;
Darker and still darker it grows,
Till the skies seem to be down hurled
By God and rain.

—Joy Jones.

MY PRAYER

Oh! Emblems of evening,
Stars of the night,
Shine down upon me,
Give me thy light.

Voices of angels,
So meek and mild,
Bless me, and guard me,
Thy wandering child.

—Madeline McKay.

A snapshot of some of our dignified Seniors way back in '30 . . . inquisitive . . . Chalk . . . and they call "it" spring dancing, Mr. McKay . . . one whom you have heard so much of . . . Devenport, Stephens, and the flagpole . . . Sebe Miller still riding his "stick-horsey" . . . could "Brother" be laughing at Burger or why don't they tell it to us? . . . Nature (Embry) in the raw . . . Adkins interfering in the Cowley reunion . . . Price and Pack still inseparable . . . reason? . . . well, . . . what Robert came to school for . . . we dare you to throw it! . . . Could Hulcy be serious about what she's telling Mr. Mann? . . . Sunset's gift to California in person . . . Houston, Murphy, and Hulsey as usual . . . showing off . . . that's Yeargan in the background . . . three of a kind . . . on with the battle . . . that winsome Matthews disposition . . . be your age, girls . . . Geiser and his usual slouch . . . Neighbors . . . little Patterson . . . some still pose when they have their pictures taken . . . lunch period pastime . . . The Bushman Bus with Deyer "fallin' out" . . . looks like those Biology bug hunters . . . Dick Cowing exhibiting his "influence" . . . three Sunset crooners . . . Can't you be still Joe? . . . Sunset's own red-headed lovers.

We're in the army now . . . Could it be popularity? . . . stick your tongue in, Margaret . . . can't you see that Maxine is laughing at you? . . . two of a kind . . . when they graduated from grammar school . . . My, how time and things do change! Watch out, Susie, O. M. is behind you . . . brotherly love . . . How does Sandlin do it? . . . first period serenaders . . . lest you forget . . . He, whom we think so much of . . . the football doctor . . . do they really study? . . . that's good for a 98, boys . . . the H_2O boys . . . where do they go? . . . must be the well-known "D" club . . . four is a crowd . . . Leetta sitting at the wrong end of the pole . . . such affection! . . . keep your chin up, it won't be so bad . . . those finals . . . Jean and Katherine ready to go . . . Smith and Cook posing as usual . . . another Houston coming up . . . how did the fender look when she got up? . . . the picture snatcher . . . my, boys, why so "mussed" up? . . . resting . . . Misses Baker and Stiff.

Captain Wilson . . . those wooden arms . . . Another Maxich, Dub and Dorothy Jo . . . Hold Your Man! . . . Is J. B. winking at some one or just practicing—we wonder . . . who's who? We'll tell you—first Martha and then Mary . . . This—is—THE—Gragg . . . And on the left—Ladies and Gentlemen—First—Lt. Taylor—next, in line, the twin Winnie! . . . Federal Inspection, but do these officers look anxious? . . . Stan Laurel. Expectation! Anticipation and the Morning Crowd! . . . This was one time we had a hard time getting our modest editor to pose, even with J. W. . . . Any resemblance to those other animals seen in cages . . . we really did have snow this year—you know—even at White Rock! . . . Did you ever see Mildred when she wasn't talking? The others seem to enjoy it. Those V. L.'s about whom you've heard! Baby Franks with the Bison spirit . . . Tit, Tat, Toe! Three in a row! . . . Have you seen them before, surely not together . . . Oh Donald, what's that old saying about—if you're pretty when you're little— . . . More animals . . . Inspection in full progress . . . Oh Cutie. Two teachers lose their (so-called) dignity and when there's no sand . . . there's gravel . . . Lowrance and Luton . . . Profiles! . . . That ex-tennis player's grin.

CALENDAR (Continued)

December 5—French Club meets.

December 6—Rovettes have important call meeting.

December 7—Elaine Brown wins Gym Posture Contest. Horseback Club meets.

December 8—The "Hoodo," January Class, Senior Play, duly presented with Maurine Glover and Hal Mosley and all the rest of the cast making it a swell production.

December 11—Ooh! Tomorrow. The second six weeks always seem to be the worst.

December 12—Report cards. Lots of long faces, but lots of happy ones, too.

December 14—Helen and Jack's affair really looks serious.

December 15—Can this be Friday?

December 18—Senior and Junior Hi-Y hold an important meeting.

December 19—Clara Lee, can't you stand up! Just another gal who fell down the front steps.

December 20—Just two more days before Christmas holidays.

December 21—What is all this paper snow for. Oh, it's for tomorrow's Christmas play. Well . . . it's Sue's and Norma's worry.

December 22—Swellest Christmas Assembly on record presented. Directed by Mr. Michels and Miss Hedde. Hurrah! Vacation begins and with a bang. Dismissed at 3:00 P. M. Merry Christmas! . . . you all.

January 2—Such a lot of little new sweaters being sported.

January 3—Public Speaking Classes are wearing such a frown. What's the reason?

January 4—Call meeting of Hi-Y.

January 5—Last 4-A dance a howling success!

January 8—Sunset has gone artistic. Charcoal murals make their appearance.

January 9—Sundial pictures taken.

January 10—More Sundial pictures taken. Senior Tag Day sales went over big!

January 11—Rovettes meet.

January 12—Senior Day—One of the swellest programs in the 4A history was given. Stampede makes its official bow for next term.

January 15—The mural of the outdoor school is really getting finished, and how! It's superb.

January 16—Advisory—banking accounts are growing.

January 17—All clubs seemed to have picked today to meet and a basket ball game.

January 18—4A's meet again.

January 19—Popularity votes counted. Steve, C. L., Helen, Vera Mae and Jeanne received the honors.

January 22—Exams.

January 23—More exams.

January 24—Exams.

January 25—Holiday.

January 26—Report cards.

January 29—Enrollment Day again.

January 30—What! a new mural! This one promises to be even better than the other.

CALENDAR (Continued)

January 31—Permanent record cards made. "Bozo," the trick dog, visits Sunset.

February 1—Horseback Riding Club has second ride since Christmas.

February 2—Rovette dance. First assembly. Linz pins given to "Sunset's Upper Crust."

February 5—R. O. T. C. boys back in uniform. What a picture they make.

February 6—Spanish Club meets.

February 7—White oxfords are beginning to make their appearance again!

February 8—More rain. No outing for the Saddle and Bridle Club.

February 9—Joint meeting of the P. T. A. and Dad's Club tonight.

February 12—How that Coach Bushman did talk at the assembly commemorating Lincoln's birthday!

February 13—Banking day again! When's the next dance? The gym's been dark for the last two week-ends!

February 14—4A meeting; Richard Cowing elected president. Valentine's Day. Such a contented look on the faces of several girls. Maybe that box of candy had sumpin' to do with it.

February 15—What fun! The most novel dance of the year given by the 4A's for the 4A's after school in the gym.

February 16—Last call for the tennis team candidates, according to Mr. Franks.

February 19—Spring, Balmy Spring, is in the air!

February 20—Advisory. Mr. White announces that thrift in Sunset is surpassing his fondest hopes.

February 21—'Nother of those 4A get-together dances. This "foot-shover" honored the 4B's.

February 22—Another bad day spoils plans of the unfortunate Horseback Riding Club. What's this! No Washington's Birthday assembly?

February 23—Initial 4A dance went over great! P. T. A.'s second pay assembly packed in another crowd; a radio program was presented.

February 26—Just another Monday. Br-r-r-r! Such weather.

February 27—Miss Hedde announced selection of Inter-city Contest Play, "Fixin's," with Mildred Hulcey, Charles Sholte, and Dale Allen, will be presented by Sunset.

February 28—Sundial goes to press. S'long.

The Senior Class of 1933 presented a three-act play, "The Hoodoo," on Friday evening, December 8th. A wedding party takes place in which many guests wear a scarab pin (The Hoodoo) which causes bad luck to all who wear it. Many mild flirtations go on and two marriages result from this party. "The Hoodoo" is finally buried where it never causes ill luck.

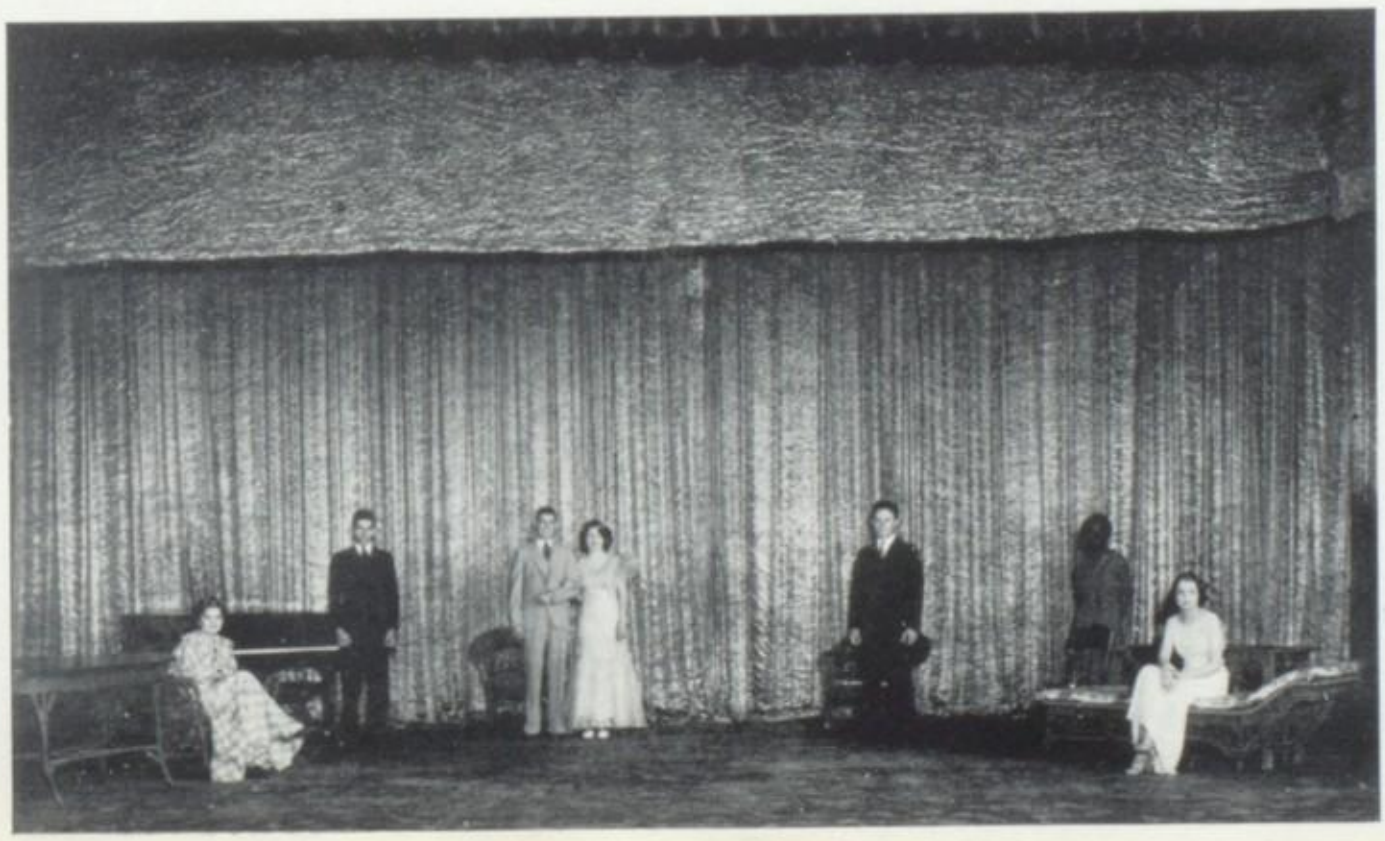
Girl Shy

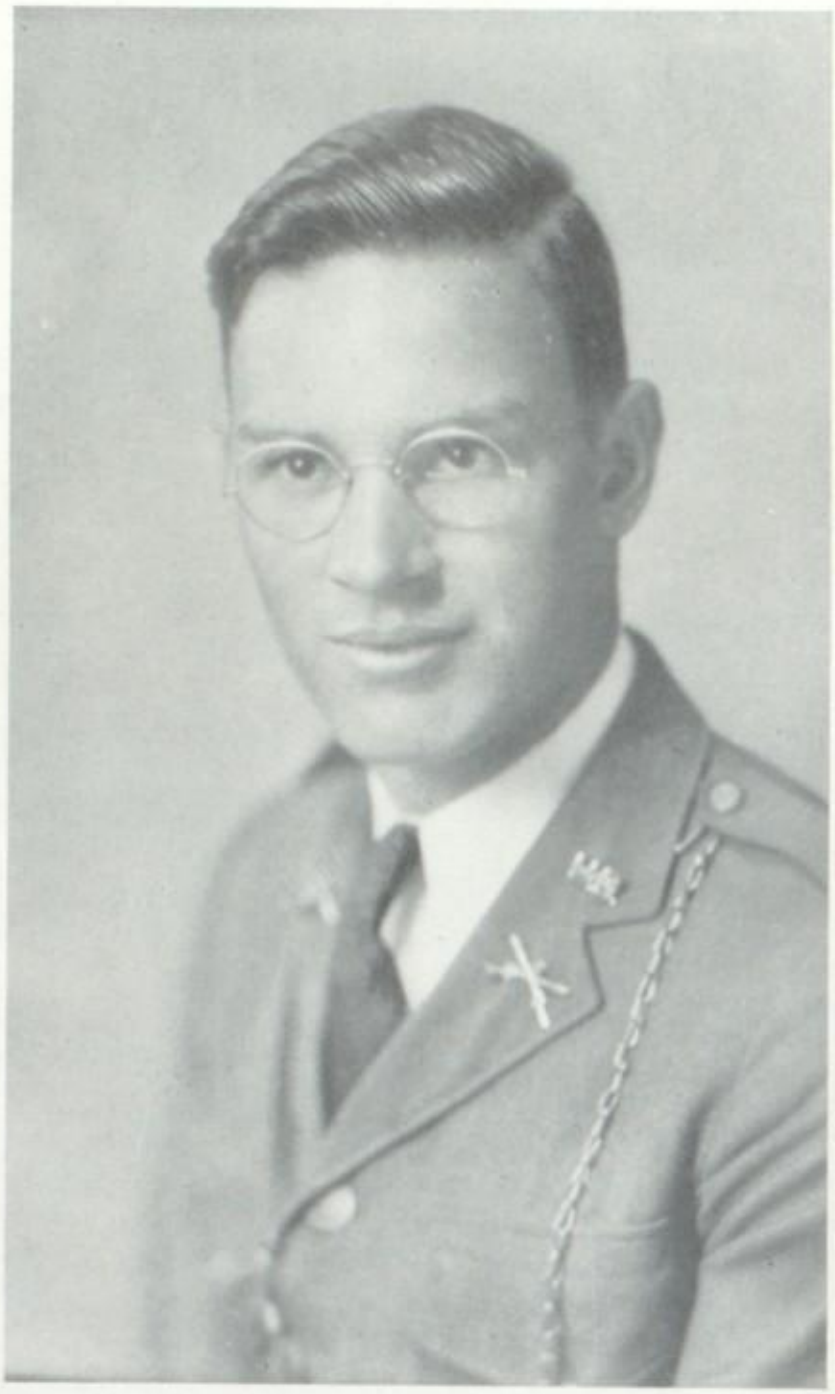
Senior Play Presented by the June, 1934, Graduatint Class

Cast of Characters

Tom Arsdale, who is girl shy	Richard Cowing
Oke Stimson, who isn't	Ashley Moore
Caroline, Tom's aunt	Helen Jo Scott
Anthony Arsdale, Tom's father	Dale Allen
Sylvia Webster, Tom's pet aversion	Florence Whiddon
Dean Marlow, Dean of the college	Arch Ross
Peaches Carter, Oke's present weakness	Imogene Townsley
Asma, a colored "wash lady"	Dorothy Sue Butler
Birdie Laverne, a movie aspirant	Abbie Reese Harvey
Barbara Sanford (Babs), herself	Virginia Hildebrand
Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd, the college poet	Robert Purdum
Chuck Mayo, Birdie's late affinity	Ashley Sutherland

The play is centered around the college life of a "girl-shy" college boy who has to pretend to be married to his housecleaner, because his father comes to the school bringing an old sweetheart. The girl who is really in love with Tom is a society girl who has changed places with his regular housecleaner in order to see him and talk to him. The development of their love affair along with the scraps that his room mate gets into is the entire plot of the play—"Girl Shy."





The Harvard Award

The Harvard Award, one of the highest honors given in the Dallas High Schools, was awarded to Ernest Green for the year 1933-34.

This award is in the form of a biography of Dean Briggs, a famous American educator, by W. R. Brown.

The candidates for the award are recommended by the teachers, and the final choice is made by the principal. The selection is made from the junior boys who are most outstanding in leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and sportsmanship.

The award has been previously presented to Glen Griffing, Thomas Cotner, Alvin Scaff, Elisha Brannon, La Verne Rodman, Billy Speaker, Hirst Sutton, and Ben Maple.

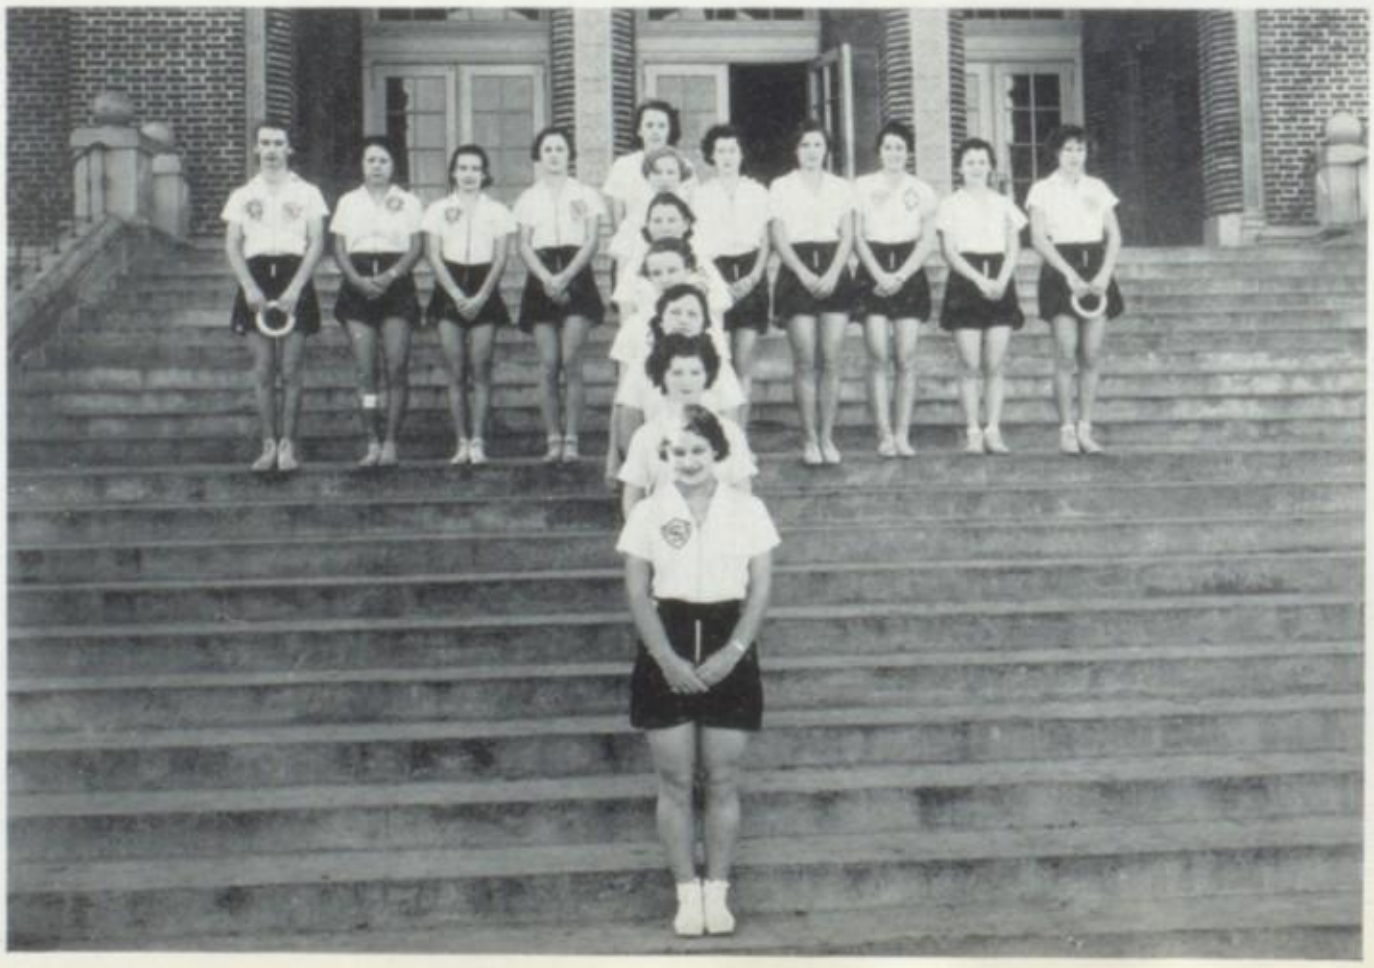
Tenekoit as played in the gymnasium is a revised form of Deck Tennis. Deck Tennis is played on ocean liners for amusement. The rules are a mixture of volley ball and tennis rules.

INTERCLASS TENEKOIT WINNING TEAMS

Captains

BEE EDWARDS (Thoene) FRANCES WITTROCK (Smith)



ATHLETICS

W. W. Bushman

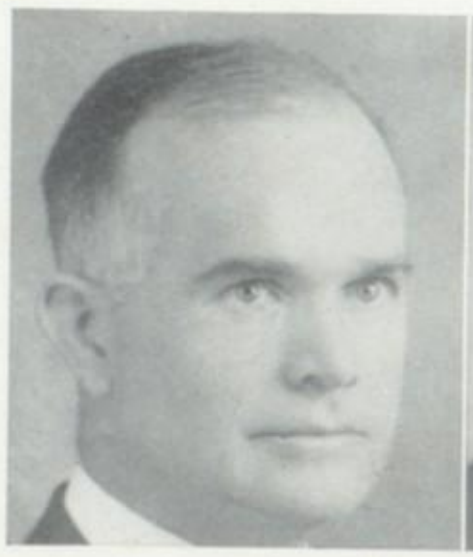
Mr. W. W. Bushman once again showed his ability to build teams by giving Sunset one of the best squads in the city.

Ben A. Matthews

Mr. Ben A. Matthews is slow moving until someone makes a poor block; then watch out for whirlwind action.

Herman A. Cowley

Mr. Herman A. Cowley. Although he's been at Sunset only two years, he has the respect of every football-loving student in the school.

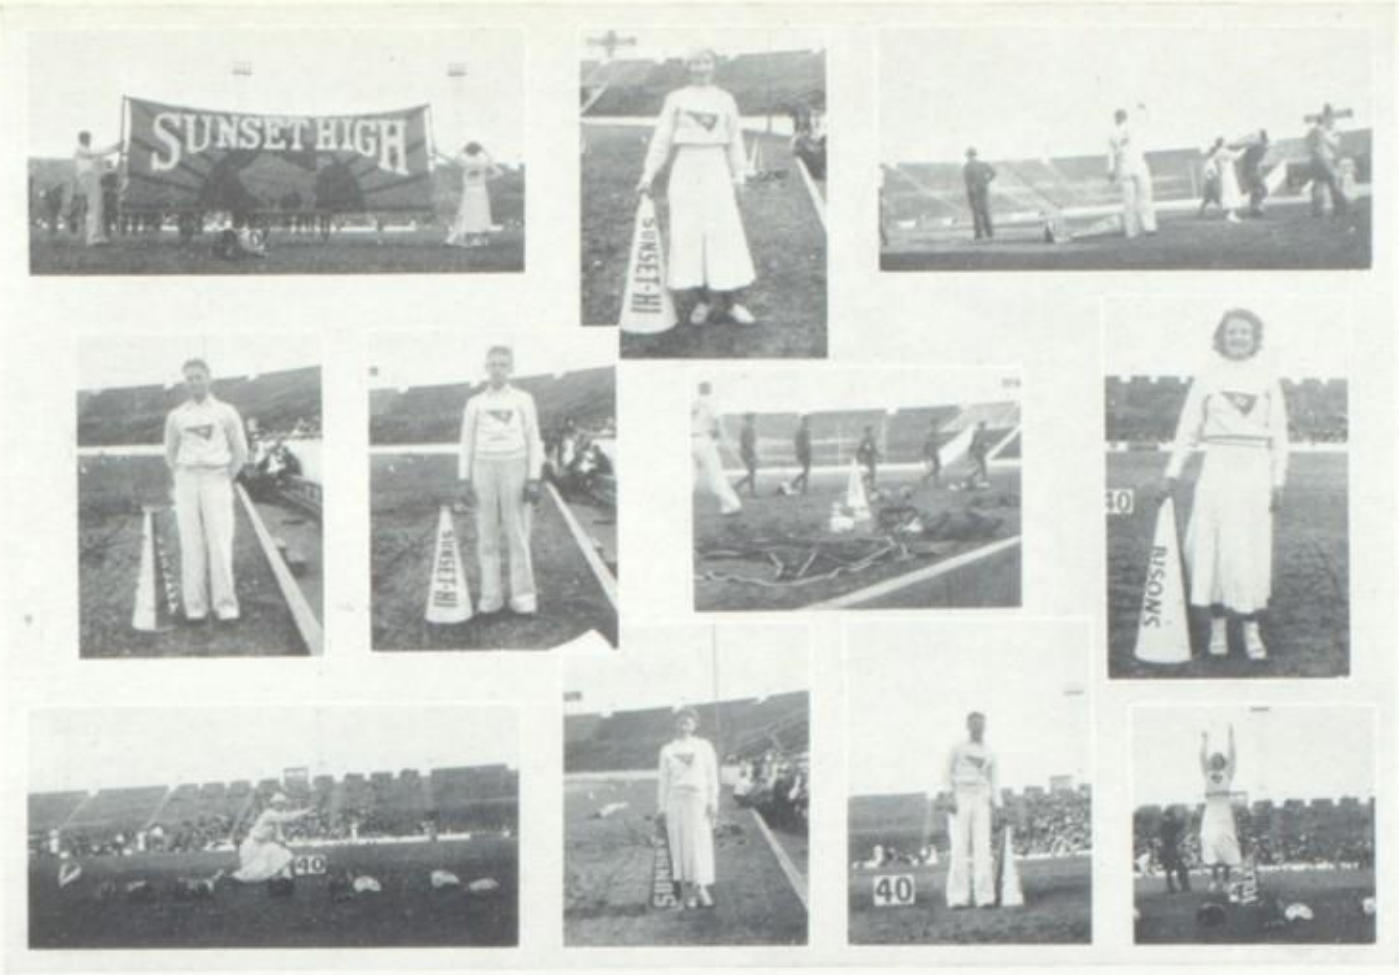


H. C. Maiden

Mr. H. C. Maiden has once again, through his tireless efforts, done much to promote football at Sunset. Sunset could not have gone far without efficient financial handling.

Bill Patton

Bill Patton proved himself a most efficient and good natured student manager.



It's a grand old banner to keep up our spirits during the "halves."

Wanda Bibbs, the little girl that stayed on the right end. Could she bring out those cheers!

Fred, dividing his attention between the cheering and the game.

Harry Gowdey—Dignity and grace are his except when leading a cheer.

Roy Valentine—This ex-player really showed his school spirit by leading cheers.

The Band coming back into the stands after the "half."

Florence Davis—Besides leading cheers she inspired one of our prominent "backs."

Bibbs—Making it loud!

Jeanne Love—Without her hands what would this captain have done?

Fred Lacy—This is the boy whose loud voice almost drowned out the cheering section.

"Whooping" it up.

Jack Fouts

Captain Fouts showed that he had all-city stuff by continually breaking up the plays of his opponents.

Steve Henry

Steve was all there when it came to blocking and backing up the line.

C. L. Houston

"Sunset Special" ran right through the city series to the All-City team, where he continued the good work.

GREENVILLE HIGH vs. SUNSET

This was the first game of the season. The boys didn't have the necessary teamwork, and the Lions defeated them 15 to 7.

PALESTINE HIGH vs. SUNSET

This game was almost a track meet, with C. L. Houston and J. W. Murphy high score men. The final score: Sunset 82, Palestine 0.

NORTH DALLAS vs. SUNSET

In the city series opener, the Bisons came through and trampled the Bulldogs 21 to 7.

ROCKWALL vs. SUNSET

Sunset proved that weather makes no difference, and on a muddy field defeated the Yellow Jackets 32 to 0.

Bill Smith

"Catfish" can't be beaten when it comes to centering that little pigskin ball. That's why he was picked for All-City.

Frank Burger

Unknown last year, Burger came through to be All-City this year.

Richard Cowing

"Boots" played mighty steady football all season. He made some mighty pretty kick-offs and kicks for extra points.

J. W. Murphy

When the time came that Sunset needed 6 or 7 yards, Murphy's plunging could always be depended on to get them.

Ashley Sutherland

The other teams got no satisfaction from off-tackle plays over "young 'un."

John Mann

When the Bisons got into a hole and needed someone to punt, "Tubby" surely came through with the goods.

John Mann

WOODROW WILSON vs. SUNSET

Despite stiff opposition by the Wildcats, the Bisons stampeded and ran up 19 points to the Wildcats' 6.

HILLSBORO vs. SUNSET

The Bisons showed their appreciation for the trip by trouncing the Hillsboro Lions 19 to 6.

TECHNICAL vs. SUNSET

The off-tackle runs made by Red Ewing gave Tech a victory and Sunset its first city series defeat, with the score 13 to 0.

Jim Anderson

FOREST vs. SUNSET

After making a touchdown in the first minute of play, the Bisons let up and the Lions tied them 6 to 6.

OAK CLIFF vs. SUNSET

The Bisons overrode a jinx that had held sway for four years and defeated the Leopards 19 to 0.

Francis Poteet

Jim Anderson

Blocking and tackling hard were Jim's favorite pastimes. He'll be missed next year.

Francis Poteet

When you saw someone go through that line and grab a handful of legs, that was "Pady" doing his stuff.

Gordon Houston

Gordy's consistent passing gained many a yard for Sunset.

MURRAY JONES

Jones showed what he could do by going through Oak Cliff in his last game.

EDGAR SWAIN

Swain could always be depended on to take up the battle if one of the regular guards was injured.

GERALD REED

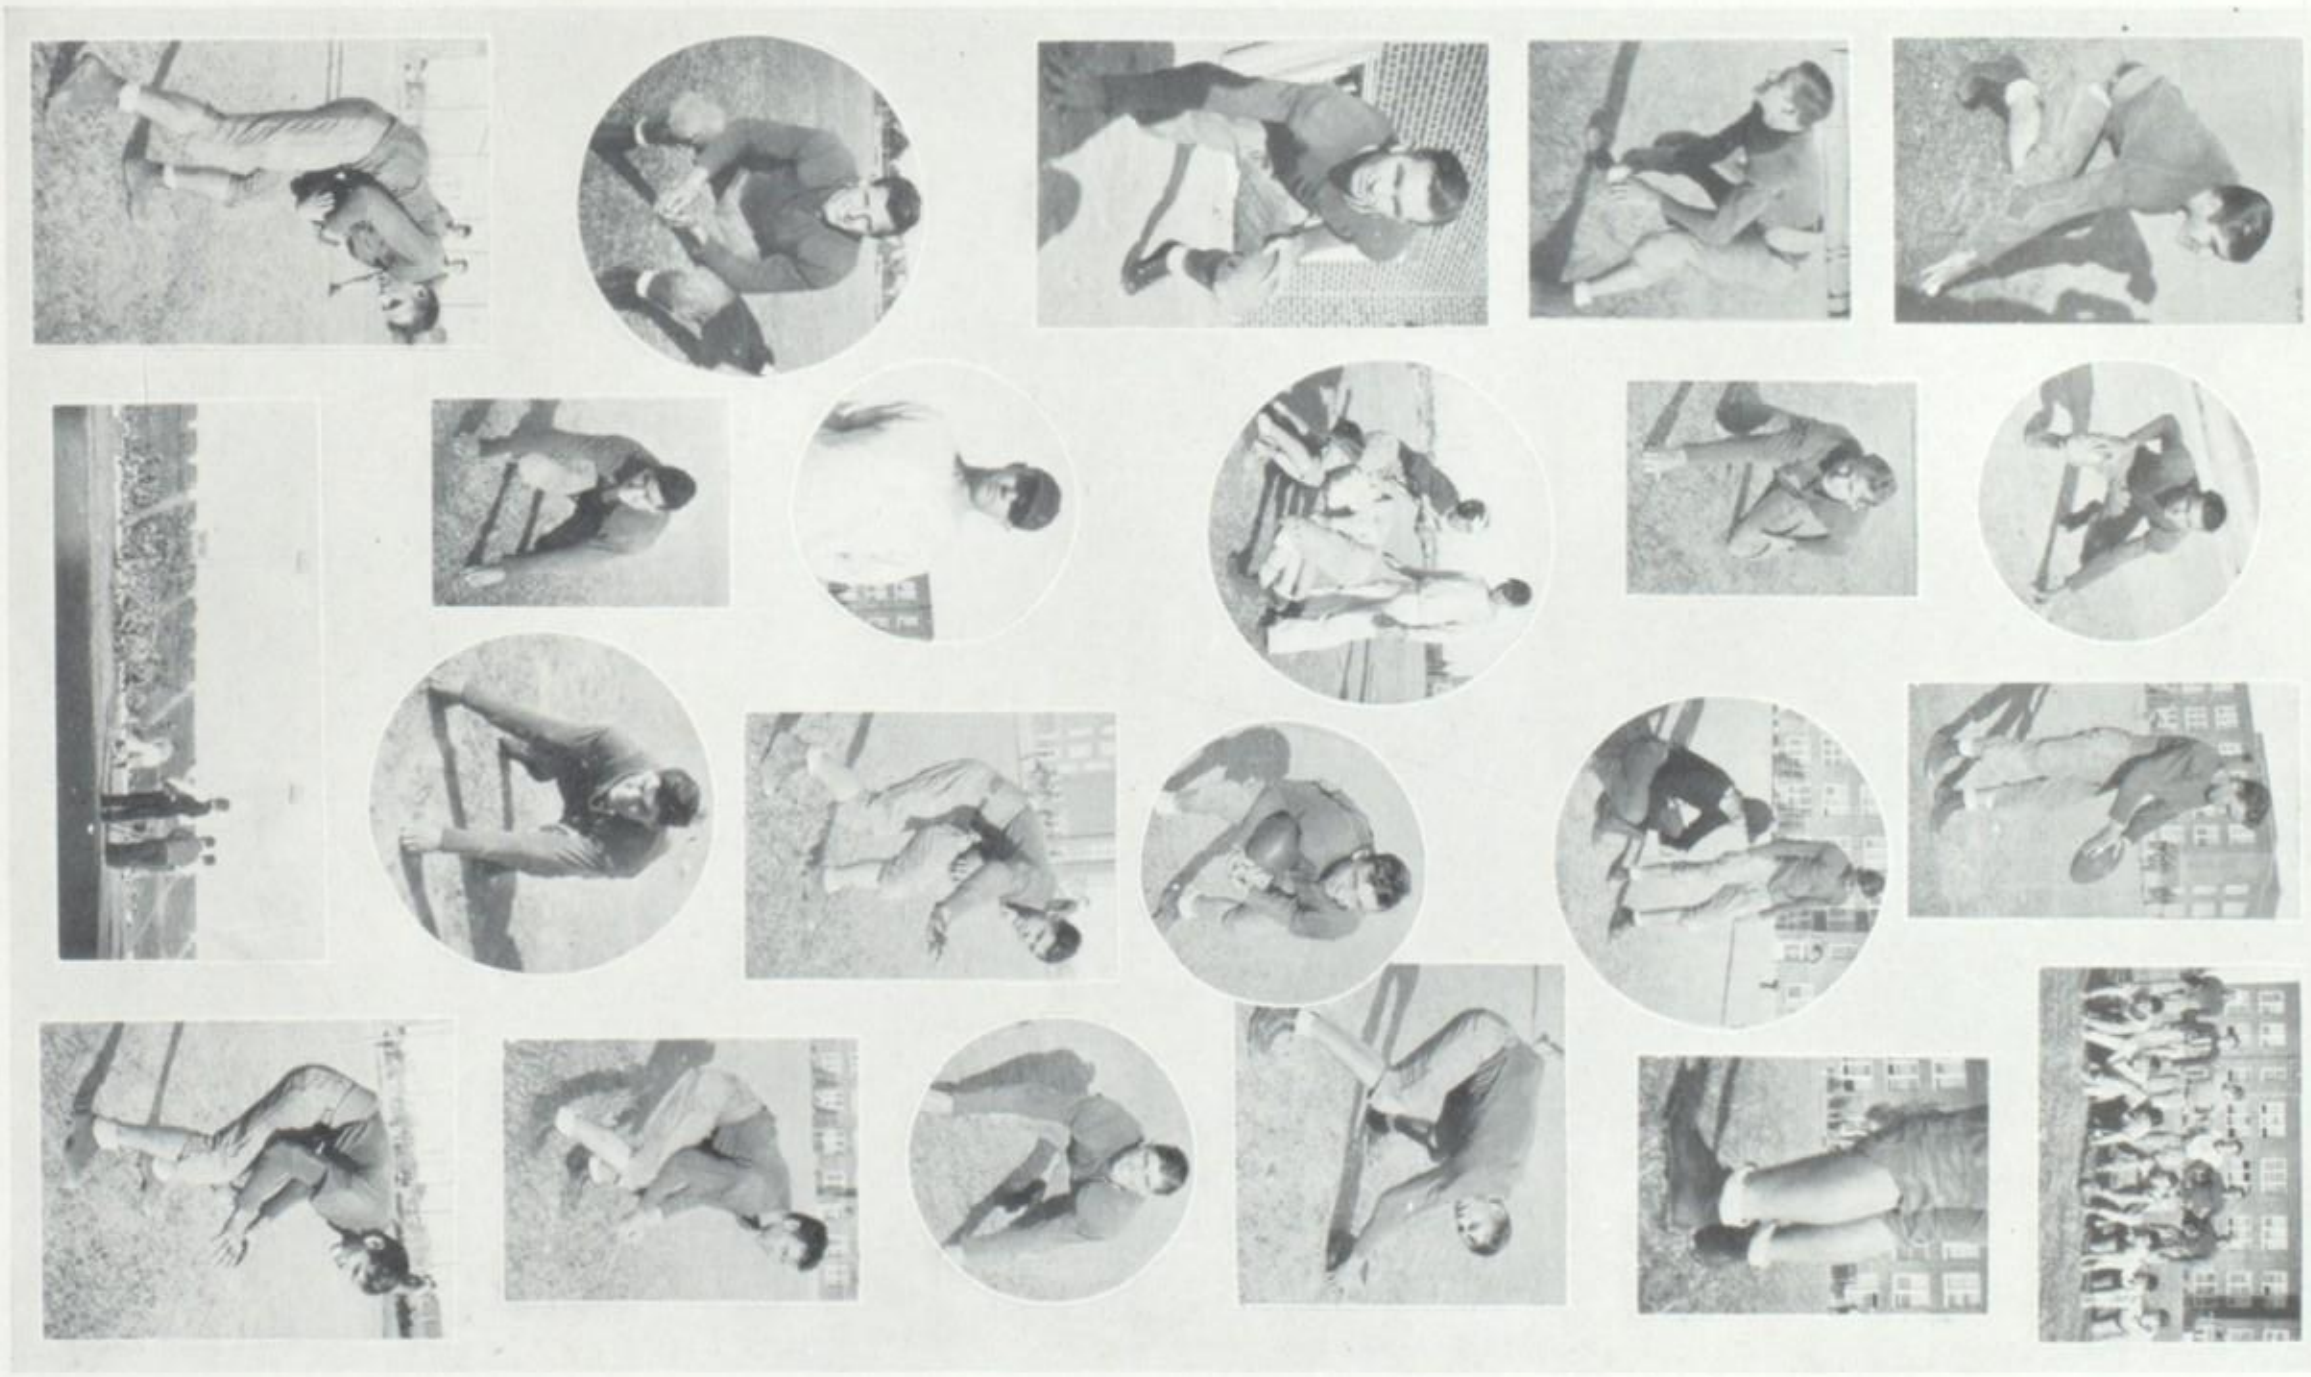
Reed was plenty good this year. Next year he should be All-City.

O. M. MCCARSON

Mac surely did snag those passes when they came his way.

L. H. TAYLOR

As a substitute end, Taylor showed that he really had the stuff it takes to make a football player.



Back Row, left to right—Matthews, coach; Dyer, guard; Valentine, guard; Wilcox, center; Dudley, center; Murphy, guard; Womack, manager.

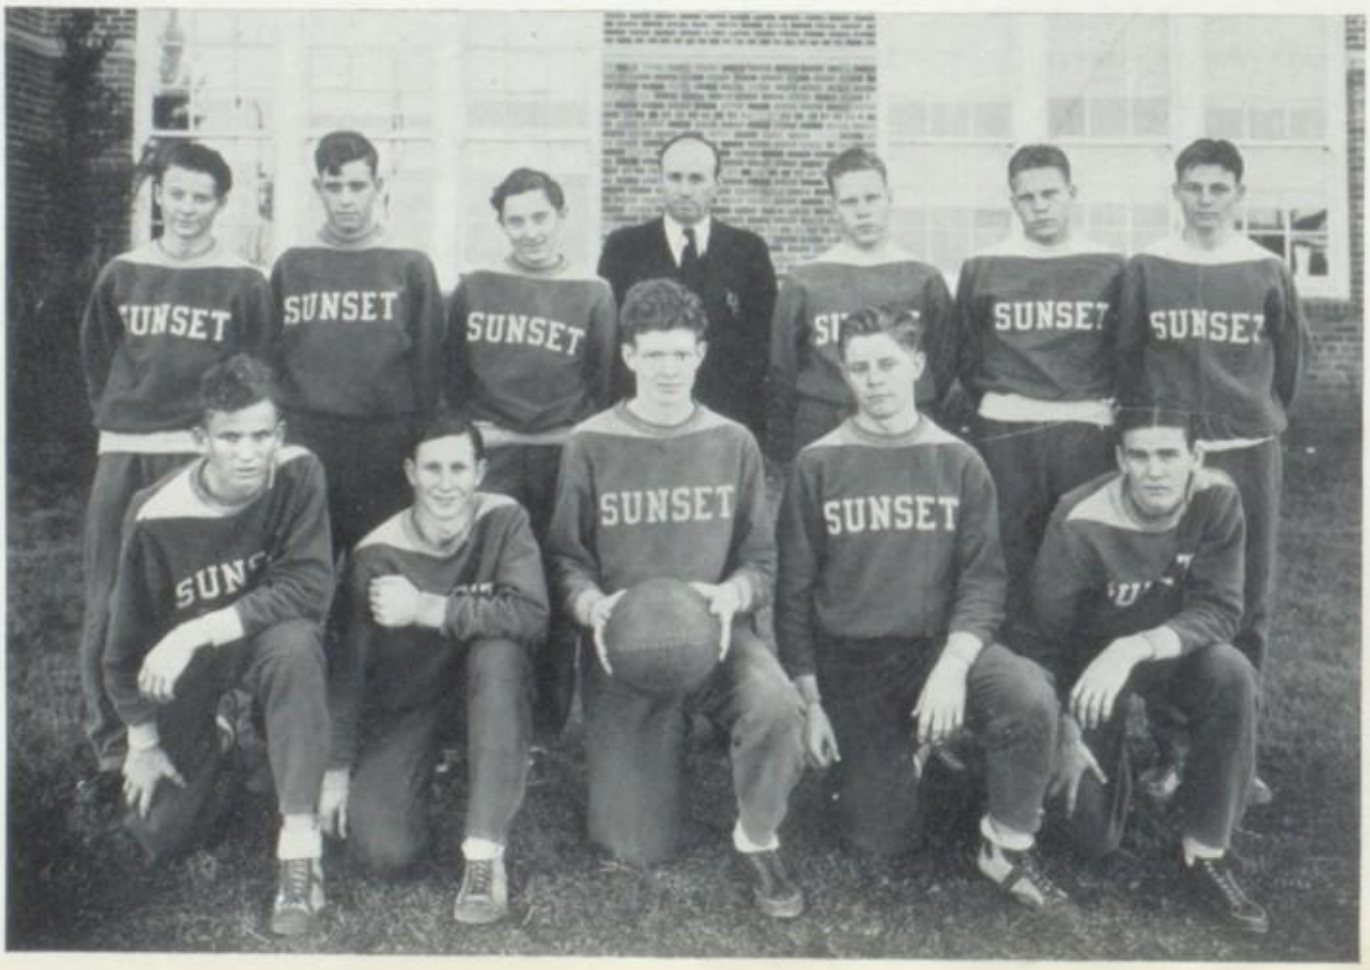
Basketball

Back row, left to right—Wolfe, Erickson, Ridgeway; Cowley, assistant coach; T. Ponder, E. Ponder, McDaniel.

Front row, left to right—Welch, Sauck, Earnest, Halfpenny, Valentine.



Track

Front Row: Hendrix, Shook, Purdum, Dickson, Erickson, Gerth, Hagerman, Williams.

Back Row: Matthews, Manager; Goodman, Siler, Taylor, Black, Cowing, Crews, Surles, Buck, Moore, Corbin, Ben A. Matthews, Coach.

Golf

Left to Right:

First Row: Bill Groth, Bob Spencer, Gordon Fry, A. P. Yates.

Second Row: Betty Jameson, Karl Knott, Robert Gates, Leslie Stemmons, Breard Mims, Captain J. Ward Fouts, Jack Terry, Dolan Terry.

Third Row: R. C. Pantermuehl, Sponsor.

The Tennis Team

Back Row: W. D. Franks, Coach; Billy Biggio, William Stapp, Virgil Lipscomb, Bea Edwards.

Enthusiastic eliminations for the team were held on our recently dedicated courts with those on the front row coming out on top. The team, all returning except Fred Lacy, whose presence will be greatly missed, has high hopes for next year.

The Baseball Team

Front row, left to right:

J. W. Murphy, third base; Morris Dudley, shortstop; Kenneth Sauck, utility; Mack Davenport, shortstop; Clarence Valentine, outfield; Gordon Houston, outfield; F. C. ("Red") Holland, captain and catcher; Phillip Hall, pitcher.

JOKES

USES OF CHILDHOOD

Ikey and Rachel took little Moses to the pictures. The attendant warned them that unless the child kept quiet, they would have to leave and get their money back.

Half way through the film, Ikey turned to Rachel and whispered, "Vell, vot do you tink of it?"

"Rotten," replied Rachel.

"Yes," answered Ikey. "Pinch de baby."

CONSIDERATE

Freshman: "We sure have a fine landlady. She saved me the most tender part of the chicken when I was late for dinner yesterday."

Soph: "What part was that?"

Freshman: "The gravy."

TOWING ETIQUETTE

New Maid (who has been told to address guests correctly—ushering in the Admiral): "This way, Your Flagship."

MISUNDERSTOOD TARTNESS

He: "Who spilled mustard on this waffle, dear?"

She: "Oh, John, how could you! This is lemon pie."

BANDITRY—EAST AND WEST

"Traveling in Manchuria is terrible," says a returned visitor. "Whenever the train stops you have to hide your luggage to keep bands of guerillas from grabbing it and running away." In this country the same thing happens, only we call them Red Caps.

* * *

"WIDER, PLEASE" IS A PLEASURE

"I wonder why Peck always goes to a lady dentist."

"I suppose it seems good to hear a woman tell him to open his mouth instead of to shut it."

* * *

Optician: "Weak eyes, eh? Well, how many lines can you read on that chart?"

Patient: "What chart?"

SETTING HIM STRAIGHT

Teacher: "What is your worst sin?"

Seminary Student: "Vanity—I stand in front of my mirror for hours admiring my beauty."

Teacher: "That's not vanity—that's imagination."

REVERSE ENGLISH

She: "Mr. Gotrox, I hear that since you made your fortune in the contracting business you've become a woman hater."

He: "Yes, I've spent the first half of my life diggin' ditches and the second half ditching diggers."

* * *

REVISE: THE YOUNG DIE GOOD

Maybe the good do die young, but the chances are if they'd lived they'd have grown up to be just as mean as the rest of us.

GRAND PASSION

A New Orleans movie patron arose from his seat while viewing a picture and shot himself. We believe we have seen that picture.

LET THE LIGHTNING STRIKE

"Does my practicing make you nervous?" asked the man who was learning to play a saxophone.

"It did when I first heard the neighbors discussin' it," replied the man next door, "but now I don't care what happens to you."

VERSATILE SYRUP

An Indian up in northern Michigan returned for the third time to buy a half dozen dollar bottles of cough syrup.

Druggist: "Some one sick at your house?"

Indian: "No sick."

Druggist: "Then what on earth is all this cough syrup for?"

Indian: "Me likeum on pancakes."

SYMPATHETIC

Prof: "If there are any dumbells in the room please stand up."

A long pause and then a lone freshman stood up.

"What, do you consider yourself a dumbbell?"

"Well, not exactly that, sir, but I hate to see you standing all alone."

THE TRUTH

Professor: "Where is the capital of the United States?"

Student: "All over the world."

BESIDE THE POINT

Politician: "Congratulate me, dear, I got the nomination."

His Wife: "Honestly!"

Politician: "Why bring that up?"

COTTON TOP

Joe: "Did you get your hair cut?"

Jim: "No, I just washed it and it shrank."

OR METAL BUTTRESSES

She: "The directions say to rub the surface down with steel wool. What on earth is steel wool?"

He: "I'm not sure, but I think it's made from the fleece of hydraulic rams."

* * *

RESERVING ONE

"Hello, is this the Girl Reserves?"

"Yes."

"Well, reserve me a nice blonde for Thursday night."

* * *

SUNSET THESPIANS?

Stage Hero (poor but worthy): "Grace, say you'll be mine."

Stage Heroine (nervously pacing floor): "Richard, you are in no position to ask me to marry you."

Voice from Gallery: "Give him a chance, woman—if you would stop tramping around and light some place, maybe he could get in position."

PRESERVING DELUSION

"He says I look like the best dancer on the floor. Wonder if I should give him a dance?"

"Nope, better let him keep on thinking so." —Penn. State Froth.

WANNA DUCK?

Q. "What would be the proper thing to say if, in carving the duck, it should skid off the platter and into your neighbor's lap?"

A. "Be very courteous. Say, 'May I trouble you for that duck?'"

DESPERATE

"Young man, I am afraid you are ignoring our efficiency system."

"I know it boss! But somebody's got to get the work done!"

MISS DIOGENES IN SCHOOL

Teacher: "Mary, why is your quiz paper covered with quotation marks?"

Mary: "Isn't there a rule against plagiarism?" —Texas Longhorn.

MORE MATERIAL

He: "Why do women, as a rule, talk more than men do?"

She: "I suppose it's because they have the men to talk about."

* * *

QUAINT PLACE

"Waiter, two orders of Spumoni Vermicelli, please."

"Very sorry, sir, that's the proprietor, sir."

TWEET, TWEET, YOUR MUG

Photographer: "Watch and see the dicky bird."

Child: "Just pay attention to your exposure so that you don't ruin the plate."

* * *

1929 MODEL

Valet (to master): "Sir, your car is at the door."

Master: "Yes, I hear it knocking."

QUESTION

Why do they put so many holes in Swiss cheese when it's really limberger that needs the ventilation?

FINAL TEST

And a woman is an expert automobile driver when she no longer closes her eyes while backing the car out of the garage. —Judge.

APPEARANCES DECEPTIVE

Dinner was being served in a London boarding house in which an American was lodged. The proprietress, bringing in a dish of soup for the American, remarked, "It looks like rain."

"Yes, it does," replied the American, "but it smells a little like soup."

ANOTHER SCOTCH JOKE

A Scotchman had fallen into a well and was calling for help. His wife came running and asked, "Shall I call the servants from the field to help pull you out?"

"What time is it?" he asked.

"Eleven-thirty," said his wife.

"Well, never mind," said he, "I'll swim around till dinner time."

QUESTIONNAIRE

Test Question: "How would you advertise your chickens for sale in 'Vanity Fair'?"

Answer: "I would start advertising my chickens about two weeks before the fair, over the radio. Then I would put up sign boards along the roads leading to the Fair Grounds."

WISHIN'

Sittin' in a study hall,
Feelin' mighty blue,
Wish I was a m'llionaire,
And owned a car or two.

Wish I had an aeroplane
Or a trim sea-going yacht,
Guess I'll take my coat off,
Wishin' makes me hot.

—HELEN MCGINN.

THE PUZZLE

A frantic man ran into a police station, and handing the desk officer a woman's picture said: "My wife is missing. I want to find her."

Officer (after looking at picture): "Why?"

IN GOD WE TRUST

Prof: "This exam will be conducted on the honor system. Please take seats three seats apart and in alternate rows."

* * *

MORE FAMILIAR FIELD

The TRADITION of QUALITY

ONE reason for quality is its great endurance. This store for men and young men was here earlier than the youth of your fathers. The quality to which it holds itself argues that it will be here, still thriving and growing, when you have become the parent. . . and so on through succeeding generations.

Judge (sternly): "Well, what is your alibi for speeding fifty miles an hour?"

Mr. Chalk: "I had just heard, Your Honor, that the ladies of my wife's church were giving a rummage sale, and I was hurrying home to protect my other pair of pants."

Judge: "Case dismissed."

Kitty: "It must be three years since I saw you last. I hardly knew you — you have aged so!"

Harriet: "Really! Well, I wouldn't have known you except for that dress."

Bill Groth's teacher had been expressing her views to the class upon the inhumanity of killing fur-bearing animals for woman's adornment. Upon arriving home Bill had the matter brought forcibly to mind, when he discovered his mother had a new fur coat.

Bill: "How that poor beast must have suffered that you might have that fur coat."

Mother: "Hush, Billy! You shouldn't talk so of your father!"

Sue Bastion: "Why all the pains in opening that letter so carefully?"

Eleanor Anne Ward: "Oh, I had a spat with Brannon, and I want to see what he has to say before I return it unopened."
